FELL OFF AN "L" TRAIN.

Thrown from the Bridge.

Brooklyn Police Capt. Eason believes that Christopher Lankhuf, the grocer of 50 Ham- Were burg avenue, who died in the Brooklyn Hospital this merning, having been found bruised For and mangled on the Union Elevated Railroad structure, received his injuries by an accidental fall from a train.

cidental fail from a train.

The "L" structure passes underneath a bridge several yards from the spot where Lankhut was found, and from disconnected words that fell from his lips it was at first from the bridge to the railroad tracks.
